100 Amateur /Master 'Works of Art' 4 Cabinteely, 4 fun and 4 funds Your last opportunity!!!

This is an Invitation to Parishioners and friends of St Brigid's to paint or put a creative 'work' of art on canvas (canvas will be provided) to be sold at a fundraising event in the Parish on June 16th. Contact the Parish Office for more information. In expressing yourself you will be impressing others and depressing a debt! That can't be all bad, can it?

Further information/collection of canvases can be obtained from the Parish Office during the week. The closing date for receiving 'works of art' into the parish is Friday next, 31st May.

Reminder: Do not sign front of painting – signatures on back please.

Important Notice

There are children/young people calling to houses in Cabinteely and surrounding parishes saying that they are collecting money for St Brigid's Girls School.

There is no collection taking place for St Brigid's Girls or Boys School and if you have a caller to your house please call the Gardaí immediately.

Do not give them any money.

Summer Days

As we move towards what some still call the 'silly season' – it could prove more than silly for us if we can't keep the doors of our Pastoral Centre "open for business" just because we don't have volunteer staff (for an hour or two) at a time and on a day of someone's choosing. Please, if you have time or ideas to share or spare could you ring Ann at 01 285 8835

The Parish Centre

There are many activities, events, classes, etc. taking place in the centre every day. Feel free to drop into the centre any day to see what is on.
