CrossCare Food Appeal

There was a great response last weekend to the start of the food appeal. The appeal continues for the Sundays of Advent for the donation of non-perishable food and hygiene products. CrossCare supplies the food directly to those who need it and to 10 charities working to help those marginalized, excluded and living in poverty. CrossCare will collect all donations every Monday for distribution to those in need. Donations can be left in the Parish any weekend during Advent.
