Our Parish Pastoral Council extend the invitation to all of our St Brigid's Parish community to reflect on the following questions posed by Archbishop Dermot Martin following the World Meeting of Families.

They are posed in the context of seeking new ways to renew our faith & renew the life of the Church, building on the enthusiasm of so many who came together to celebrate & support the WMOF.

1. Why are we no longer captivating so many of our young people for the message of Jesus Christ ?
2. Which models of spiritual guidance & reflection are most likely to win the hearts of young people for the message of Jesus Christ?
3. How do we best teach young people about its yet? How can our parish community respond to these challenges?

4. Which aspects of contemporary culture make it harder for people to understand or identify with the relevancy of the message of Jesus?

Fr Aquinas & our PPC would be very appreciative of the communities reflection on the above points.

We are very aware of the importance of being open to ALL our community, including hearing the voices of those in our community who may feel marginalised or alienated.

Your responses would be most welcome through the parish office or via email-pp@cabinteelyparish.ie
