

St Brigid's Parish Cabinteely

January 10th 2021 - The Baptism of the Lord

We need history. We need it in order to understand ourselves, personally and collectively. The pieces of our histories may not have always been the most positive, honest, exemplary, dignified, proud and best moments of our lives, but they are ours. We have to acknowledge, remember, accept, and often heal them. We cannot forget them or pretend that they never existed. As horrible as the atrocities of events like Auschwitz, brutal injustices committed throughout the human journey, or personal painful experiences in our own stories, we need to remember. These times when humanity in general or people in particular have lost their way are times that need to be reconciled and redeemed.

If we lose the memories, we will make the same mistakes again. The human soul needs a strong sense of affirmation, direction, and clear purpose. Without these essentials, we will easily run amuck and repeat the sins of our past. God's voice throughout history has spoken precisely about this! We are reminded through the voices and example of many prophets and witnesses not to make the same mistakes again, come back to centre, discover the purpose given to us by God, maintain a sense of proper direction, seek healing for wounds and be reconciled to our Creator.

Baptism is so incredibly important for the salvation of humankind, not only eternally but here and now. Our existence depends upon it. It gives us the affirmation we need from God by gifting us with the same intimate relationship Jesus had with the Father. We are blessed with the direction and clear purpose we need in order to be productive stewards and faithful Christians. Baptism calls us to remember, accept, and deal with the sins and inequities of our past regardless of how hurtful and serious. We consciously choose to turn away from them and put on the new life of Christ. To do this well, we must look hard and long at our sins and failings, listen to what they are saying and learn from them. If we ignore the past, collectively or personally, or pretend that it never happened, we will never grow. We will surely die.

People need to hear the message, lived and spoken, delivered by the baptized members of the Body of Christ. It is an essential message of hope that is layered with visions of justice, peace, reconciliation, redemption, blessing, and healing. It is a message that helps us remember what has gone before, the graces and the sins, and bring ourselves by God's help where we need to be. We are called to do much more than sit home behind our closed doors. We have a message to deliver. Are we ready to do so?

Pope Francis appoints Bishop Dermot Farrell as the new Archbishop of Dublin. Please keep him in your prayers as he takes up his new ministry.

It is with a humble heart that I accepted Pope Francis's invitation to serve the people and clergy of the Diocese of Dublin as bishop. I am glad to accept the call to serve in Dublin, to be a pastor in this place, and in this community of faith.

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

As so much of the world enters another lockdown, many feel a deep sense of crisis. However, there's a saying that a crisis should never be wasted. The philosopher Ivan Illich reminds us that the original meaning of the word is 'turning point', 'the marvellous moment when people become aware of their self-imposed cages, and of the possibility of a different life'. New Pilgrim Path this week introduces a wide range of opportunities for spiritual transformation in times of pandemic, from online courses & retreats to inspirational websites, music and poetry; from marvellous resources for contemplation, meditation and self-examination to a comprehensive listing of streamed religious services for a range of Christian denominations worldwide. Access these, and many more rich online resources, at www.newpilgrimpath.ie.
