Website of the Week: Care of the Earth

"There are no lasting changes without cultural changes, without a maturing of lifestyles and convictions within societies, and there are no cultural changes without personal changes".
Pope Francis' recent letter, Laudate Deum, makes it clear that each of us has a personal responsibility to our planet and our own role to play in arresting Earth's seemingly headlong plunge into disaster. It is each of our responsibility to be stewards of the Earth. It is through a combination of our own individual efforts, added to those of all other individuals, that real change can occur. The Christian Brothers of Oceania have produced a simple checklist of possibilities to help individuals assess their own daily behaviours in terms of environmental impact. It provides a host of suggestions for making small changes in behaviour and actions which, cumulatively, can make an enormous difference. Access this useful guide at: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

Now thank we all our God with heart and hands and voices, who wondrous things has done,

in whom his world rejoices;
who from our mothers' arms has blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us, to keep us in his grace, and guide us when perplexed, and free us from all ills of this world in the next

All praise and thanks to God the Father now be given, the Son and Spirit blest, who reign in highest heaven
the one eternal God,
whom heaven and earth adore;
for thus it was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

Christ Be our Light

Longing for light, we wait in darkness.
Longing for truth, we turn to you.
Make us your own, your holy people, light for the world to see.

Christ be our light! Shine in our hearts. Shine through the darkness.

Christ, be our light! Shine in your church gathered today.

Longing for peace, our world is troubled.
Longing for hope, many despair.
Your word alone has power to save us.
Make us your living voice.

Chorus Repeat

Longing for food, many are hungry.
Longing for water, many still thirst Make us your bread, broken for others, shared until all are fed.
